Medical & Dietary

- 1) If you have any medical conditions that place you at risk whilst participating in this event please give FULL details here:

- 2) It is a condition of participating in the Tour de Sez 2018 that in cases of emergency, the Organising Team has your authority to arrange any necessary medical treatment and/or to sign any required form of consent on your behalf. Please sign in the box below to acknowledge this fact and grant your permission for this in the circumstances described.

Medical Declaration

- 3) I understand that The Tour will involve strenuous physical activity. Before departure, if I have any concerns regarding my physical fitness or health, I will consult my GP immediately. To the best of my knowledge I am currently fit and have no medical conditions to preclude me from this event not previously outlined in this document. I accept that the Organisers will provide a good level of medical support en route and that insurance will be in place of a general nature. I confirm that if I need any additional level of insurance I will put it into effect at my own expense. I confirm that, in the event of serious injury or in the event of my death whilst participating in this event, neither I nor my next of kin nor any other person will have any financial claim in damages against the Sarah Groves Foundation, or their representatives.

Next Steps

The registration period will conclude when all one hundred places have been filled on The Tour. When the Tour de Sez Committee has approved your Application, based on the details you have provided here, you should immediately create your personalised www.justgiving.com page. Instructions for doing this will be sent to the e-mail address given above. This will enable you to record the non-refundable deposit of £250 deposit against your name, which is required in order to take part in The Tour. You will not be an official participant in The Tour until the deposit is paid.
